Shockwave partners with IMP in the UK

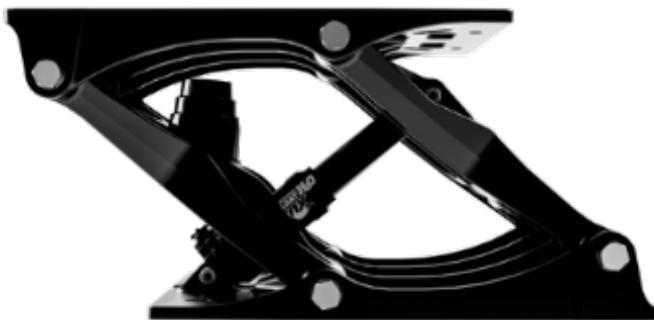

Shockwave Seats, a Canadian-based marine suspension company revolutionizing marine shock mitigation around the globe, has appointed IMP as its exclusive distributor in the UK.

Shockwave Seats sets the standard in the Marine Suspension Seating industry. Shockwave Designs and manufactures all of the marine suspension products in Canada using military-grade components.

Global customers including Coast Guard, SAR, military, commercial and builders of high-performance leisure craft, all recognizing the value of Shockwave's cutting-edge design, high quality, and extreme testing regime.

Paul Woodlock European Sales Manager at GMA who represents Shockwave in Europe commented, "Our European Distributor network is growing quickly with companies like IMP understanding the benefits of having a quality product that gives the boat owner the best comfort & safety. IMP have a proven track record with "high-end" international products in the marine industry and I have no doubt will be a great partner for Shockwave in the UK."

Darren Bown, Managing Director at IMP said, "We are known in the industry for offering the best products with superior quality & performance and the Shockwave Marine Suspension products fit into this category. Suitable for recreational and commercial applications we see a good opportunity to grow the market in the UK and are excited to get started."
